

Member at Large

A Member at Large of the AMA Chicago Board of Directors has no specific duties until assigned by the President of the board or Executive Director but has the same rights and responsibilities as other board members. The position reports directly to the President of the board. The ideal candidate is a senior-level marketer with a passion for creating smarter marketers in the Chicago area.

Main Responsibilities for a Member at Large

- Attend all board meetings to have an understanding of the board's direction and stance on issues and contribute accordingly to decision making.
- Work with one of the 6 committee Vice Presidents as an advisor on a specific initiative or chapter benefit as assigned by the President.
- Represent the interests of the group of marketers with which the member at large most closely identifies.
 - Academics
 - Non-profit
 - B2B
 - B2C

Time Commitment

- About 1 hour per week
- Attend monthly board meetings (second Monday of each month 6 pm – 8pm)

Top Three Requirements for the Member at Large:

- Have achieved a senior-level marketing position in the Chicago area
- Excellent communications skills
- Contribute to various volunteer efforts, decision making and strategic requirements of the organization.